

vinous

94 pts

Armando Parusso 1999 Barolo Riserva
Oro Rocche

Monforte D'alba, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2014 - 2029

Parusso's 1999 Barolo Riserva Oro Rocche is impeccably layered from start to finish. Plums, black cherries, mint, licorice and violets are all woven together in a striking Barolo that impresses for its delineation and pure balance. I very much like the focus and energy here. The 1999 can be enjoyed now, but it also has the depth and structure to drink well for many years. This is a fabulous showing from Marco Parusso.

Wine Tasted: November 2012. Antonio Galloni, August 2014.

© 2013 Vinous Media