Mariondino*Monforte D'alba, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2012 - 2024

Marco Parusso's 1999 Barolo Riserva Mariondino is seriously deep, rich and intense. Black cherries, mocha plums, violets and menthol emerge from the glass. Mariondino usually yields floral, more finessed Barolos, but the 1999 is unusually deep and full-bodied. Early tertiary notes are right around the corner in a voluptuous Mariondino that will drink well for another decade, perhaps longer.

Wine Tasted: November 2012. Antonio Galloni, August 2014.
